

Capacity Enhancement through Scientific Communication: Information Portals in Vietnam

Central Institute of Economic Management, 68 Phan Đình Phùng - Ba Đình - Hà Nội
Thursday, 19 August 2010: 9:30 am to 17 pm

Seminar organised by Nordic Institute of Asian Studies and supported by DDRN

At the seminar, we want to initiate a discussion among researchers, information specialists and representatives from the private sector and state in Vietnam on:

- Creative approaches to scientific communication; how to enhance capacity through communication and dissemination
- New ways of making information partnerships work.
- Collaborative working tools, sharing knowledge resources by using Portals and other forms for information infrastructure
- The power/culture issues; private sector, state and information needs

Key note speakers include Neil Blake Director of Economic Analysis at Oxford Economics and Dr. An from Communist Party Research Institute, Hanoi.

Interviews, PowerPoints and other material will be available at the Vietnamese Economic Portal www.vnep.org.vn and it will be possible to follow the meeting via Twitter: #vnep
